

The State Of New Jersey, already has one of the strongest "Do not call" laws on the books (stronger than the federal law) in order to protect the consumer.

Don't let the special corporate intrests try to weaken our state laws, by creating an overriding federal law, that would weaken consumer protection.